

ARE YOU FAILING YOUR EMPLOYEES?

Payroll isn't something many people think about, but the one expectation every employee has is that they will be paid correctly and on time. However, our research has discovered that too often this is not happening - and the consequences can be huge!

ALMOST

90%

of organisations have made mistakes in the last 12 months, which resulted in employees being paid incorrectly or late

80%

of organisations are spending a minimum of 12 hours fixing payroll errors from the previous month

The key issues payroll teams face as part of their processes

40%

of organisations admitted to making more than 11 mistakes in a year

This impacts your employees' financial and mental wellbeing and creates problems for you too...

89%

of respondents are finding that financial wellbeing is now having more of an impact on an employees performance

50%

of respondents stated implementing new digital technology was the best way to improve their current processes

IT'S TIME TO ACT

Save time, money and stress for your employees by transforming your payroll. Whether you need a software solution that provides better automation, or want a part or fully-managed solution from an expert provider - we can help you run payroll your way.

#PAYROLLYOURWAY

